WARRENTON, VA.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
WARRENTON, VA., May 28.—Most of the schools here will hold their commencements this week. The feature for the finals at Bethel Military Academy, which closes next Friday, is a hop to be given by the cadets in the gymnasium. The past session at the Fauquier Female Institute and Blythedale Seminary has been in every way gratifying to the instructors and pupils alike. Much pains have been taken to make their coming commencement exercises as attractive as possible.

A number of people from here will attend the unveiling of the monument to Colonel John Quincy Marr at Fairfax next Wednesday.
